1. [redacted] In response to his inquiry about [redacted] f., I advised Ernest Corrado, Chief Clerk, House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, that [redacted] had worked for CIA during the period December 1962 to May 1968. I added that he had served as the chief of our Maritime Branch, was a competent officer and had received training in a variety of military specialties, and that he left the Agency voluntarily. Corrado said this was all he needed and thanked. He said this would serve his purposes.

2. [redacted] By way of followup to my earlier inquiry, Larry McHugh, Joint Economic Committee staff, said he talked with John Stark, Executive Director of the Committee, about the timing of the hearings on the Soviet Union before the Subcommittee on Foreign Economic Policy. He said that Stark has put pressure on John Hardt, Library of Congress, to get the various reports in so hearings could be held in "late spring." McHugh said as far as he knows no specific date has been set for the hearings and there is always the chance they could be slipped back.
